

Name: Mohasina Haque Mim
Department of sociology
4th year, 2nd semester
Roll: B-160404001
Course: Crime and deviance
Course code: Soc. 4202
Jagannath University
Exam Date: 14.07.2021
Exam Number: Mid 2.

Ans to the question no 2

Juvenile Delinquency one of and a half century ago Adolphe A. Quetelet, the eminent Belgium social statistician observed that adolescents particularly the young males are prone to crime, disorder, and delinquency because of their childish impulsiveness or adolescent conflict.

William Gaxson who in 1484, use the term delinquent to describe a person found guilty of customary offence.

It may be said that the delinquency is a form of behaviour or rather misbehaviour or deviation from the generally accepted norms of conduct in the society. Juvenile delinquency differently interpret the world. This term refers to a large variety of disapproved behaviour of children and adolescent which the society does not approve of and for which kind of adolescent, admonishment, punishment or corrective measure is justified in the public interest.

Juvenile is an adolescent person between childhood and manhood or womanhood. as the case may be who indulges in some kind of anti social behaviour, which if not checked may turn him or her into a potential offender.

Albert Cohen observed that only possible definition of delinquency is one that themselves are a heterogeneous collection of regulation, some common to all common relate to the behaviour in question to some set of rules.

Ruth Shonle observed that ~~irresponsible~~ irrespective of legal definition a child might be regarded as delinquent when his anti-social conduct inflicts suffering upon others or when his family finds him difficult to control so that he becomes a serious concern of the community

In a broad generic sense, juvenile delinquency refers to a variety of anti-social behaviour of a child and it define some what differently by different society, though a common converging tendency of the child or adolescents.

Juvenile Delinquency in Bangladesh

The number of juvenile delinquency are increasing in Bangladesh that rate is alarming in Dhaka city.

One responsible source of police claimed that '40 percent of the arrested criminals are ~~the~~ juveniles. They are involved in that theft, robbery, hijacking and extortion, drug selling also. They possess different kind of deadly weapons including fire arms.

They are even involved in the killing in two months of 2002, the police arrested 40 young offenders who are associated with hijacking.

"Highly placed source of police information that juveniles are extensively involved with drug bussing Drugs dealers use the youngsters

in carrying and selling drugs.
The children of Bangladesh involve themselves in different type of deviance

1. Stealing
2. murder
3. pick pocketing
4. Fraud.
5. hijack
6. sexual perversion etc.

So there the need of prevention of juvenile delinquency is very very essential for society or for country also. There also some importance to prevent juvenile delinquency in Bangladesh they are given below:-

1) The most importance ~~of~~ to prevent juvenile delinquency is to protect the child generation from dangerous situation. ~~the~~ prevent ~~of~~ being a criminal also.

2) There ~~are~~ the social awareness create by society ~~are~~ well fear agency can ... give guidance and supervision of thoes kind of crime or behaviour.

3) The prevention of juvenile delinquency is a big step to found the future generation ~~of~~ good for our county development.

4) Juvenile delinquency also were big problem for society's people and very harmful for the peace of society and our country.

5) A well planned scheme of education will intellectually prevent those kind of anti-social phenomena.

6) For this juvenile delinquency report there a kind of indisciplinary remain in everywhere in our country. So the prevention of this is very very important for people of our country for their secure life.

7) The illegal work took use on advantage of this child generation for their profit. This increase drug addiction of child on young generation. It harm our country very deeply.

8) There ~~be~~ family broken for the Juvenile delinquency and the big family become poor for those kind of intention of young family members. So it needed to be removed or prevented.

9) There because of Juvenile delinquency we can see the migration, lack of parenting control and poverty also. So if we need to stop them we have to prevent the Juvenile delinquency in Bangladesh.

10) There by the education, social awareness, mass media can prevent Juvenile delinquency in Bangladesh. Because for the development of Bangladesh it is a very big problem. It is harmful for all of the people of our country. It is say that the child are the future of our country. So we have to take care of our young generation and we have to remove juvenile delinquency from Bangladesh.